

Press release

regarding the completion of the project 'DIGITISATION OF S.C. DELTAMED SRL'

15 September 2026

DELTAMED SRL, a company based in the village of Gilău, Cluj County, announces the completion of the project 'DIGITISATION OF S.C. DELTAMED SRL' (SMIS code: 335834), funded under the North-West Regional Programme 2021–2027, managed by the North-West Regional Development Agency in its capacity as the Managing Authority.

The funding agreement was signed on 16 December 2025, and the project ran until 15 September 2026 at the company's registered office in the village of Gilău, Gilău Commune, 33–37 Muncii Street, Cluj County.

The overall objective of the project was the digital transformation of the company through investment in tangible and intangible assets, including social media and IT services, which contributed to the company's economic development and increased competitiveness by enhancing the use of information and communications technology.

Specific objective 1 and result 1 were achieved, whereby a set of modern, high-performance tangible and intangible assets – a laptop, a telephone, an integrated smart management platform/web solution, a chatbot, a warehouse management system and a product data management system – were acquired and integrated into the technological workflow. Specific objective 2 and result 2 have been achieved, in accordance with which measures have been implemented to improve the environment and ensure equal opportunities. Specific Objective 3 and Result 3 are being achieved through efforts to increase labour productivity and will be fulfilled by the end of the third financial year following the completion of the project's implementation.

The total value of the project was 785,794.02 lei, of which the non-repayable funding amounted to 493,080.00 lei, comprising a contribution from the European Regional Development Fund of 419,118.00 lei, and from the National Budget, amounting to 73,962.00 lei. The remainder represented the beneficiary's own contribution, in accordance with the funding agreement.
